THE GOLF COURSE

THE COURSE

Located on what once was farmland in the 1800s, Silo Point Country Club is an 18-Hole championship golf course in Southbury, Connecticut. Designed by Al Zikorus and originally opened as 'Heritage Village Country Club' in 1967, the course winds its way throughout the Heritage Village community. Instead of designing straightaway fairways, 16 of the 18 holes are majestically carved through the foothills and along the Pomperaug River.

THE GAME

The Par-72 course plays at 6,241 yards from the blue tees, 6,041 yards from the whites, 5,500 yards from the red tees and 5,595 yards from the gold tees.

Blue Tees: Rated 71.1 with a slope of 127
White Tees: Rated 70.2 with a slope of 125
Red Tees: Rated 72.1 with a slope of 126
Gold Tees: Rated 68.3 with a slope of 119
